All documents self-certified by the Applicants are admissible.
#This Group will be included in the priority households suo moto by the Department based on the report by Goa State AIDS Control Society (GSACS). The beneficiary need not submit any application in this group.

Applicants belonging to categories in Table-1 will not be required to submit income certificate (except Sr. Nos. 3, 4, 5 & 14). Self-certification regarding their income, occupation and that they are not covered by exclusion criteria will be enough and field verification if required will be carried out on random basis and on case to case basis in case of any specific complaints only. Similarly self-certification as shelter less, being single women, children without protection or occupationally vulnerable group will be admissible. Applicants in category in Table 1, Sr. Nos. 3, 4, 5 & 14 shall submit the proof of income.

III. Exclusion Criteria.— Households meeting any of the below criteria will be excluded from Priority households.

(i) Household having annual income of above Rs. 50,000/- (applicable only for Sr. Nos. 3, 4, 5 & 14).

(ii) If any member of a household owns a light Motor Vehicle (Four Wheeler).

(iii) If any member of the household is an employee of Central/State Government, local bodies, Corporation/autonomous bodies of Central/State/Local Government or Government aided institutions excepting daily wagers or casual/contract employees.

(iv) If the household has electricity connection above 4KW (not applicable in case of organizations/institutions).

(v) None of these exclusion criteria will be applicable in case of beneficiaries covered under Table 1, Sr. No. 17.

IV. Documents to be submitted as proof of eligibility.—

(i) Any category specific certificate prescribed in Table 1.

(ii) Copy of EPIC of all members of the family (major in age) (for other than institutions).

(iii) Copy of Aadhaar Card of all the family members (wherever available).

(iv) Applicant is required to furnish the bank account details as may be prescribed.

(v) Residence proof of the applicant, if her residence is not the same as mentioned in her Aadhaar Card. (Not applicable in case of existing Ration card holders and Institutions/organizations/homes).

(vi) Existing Ration Card photo copy if any.

(vii) A declaration in the prescribed format that the applicant doesn’t fall under any of the exclusion criteria.

(viii) The applicant will be required to furnish the biometrics of all the adult members of the household within a time-frame that may be prescribed by Government by order. Non submission of biometrics within the time prescribed will render the applicant ineligible to be Priority or AAY household till the time the biometrics are submitted.

V. How to apply.— A public notice will be issued inviting people to apply for inclusion of their household in the list of eligible households for getting subsidized food grains under the provisions of The National Food Security Act, 2013.

The eldest female will be treated as the Head of household (HoF) (other than for institutions where Officer Incharge of the Institution will be designated as Head of Household). The application should be submitted in the prescribed format specified by the Government.

VI. Place of submission.— The application will be received in the office of concerned Taluka Office of Civil Supplies Department and/or at any of the local bodies at the village level. Efforts will be made to provide facility for filing application online.
VII. Procedure for approval and finalization of eligible priority household.—(i) Applications received will be scrutinized. Photograph and demographic details of applicant and/or other members of the household from Aadhaar data base or any other data base available with the Government for any other scheme may be used to avoid need for capture of fresh photograph and data of applicants and other members of households. This will also help prevent duplication and bogus cards.

(ii) Field verification may be conducted wherever necessary.

(iii) Before declaring any household as eligible, the Taluka Officer will issue a public notice that he intends to include such household(s) in the category of eligible households and will publish it on notice board of his office and on the department website for a minimum period of 7 days.

(iv) Any objection for inclusion of any household in the category of eligible household can be filed with the Taluka Officer within 07 days of publication of the list. The Taluka Officer will consider the objection. Opportunity of being heard will be given to the applicant before rejecting her application in response to any such objection.

(v) After disposing of the objections received, the Taluka Officer will include the applicant household in the list of eligible household category.

(vi) After this the Taluka Officer of civil supplies will arrange to send the list (pertaining to particular local body) so finalized by him to the concerned local body for their comments and objections if any. The local body shall place the list in the public domain for at least seven days to invite objections to the same & then place the same before executive body of the local body for its say on the objections if any and recommendation to the Taluka Officer. The local body shall return the list along with its objections, suggestions and recommendations if any within 30 days of its receipt from the Taluka Officer. The failure on the part of local body to return back the list as aforesaid, shall have the presumption that the local body had no objections or suggestions to be made and that the list prepared by the Taluka Officer shall be deemed to have been recommended by the local body.

(vii) The Taluka Officer shall then after receipt of the list from the local body if received with any objections shall hear the parties concerned and decide and publish the final list within 15 days thereafter.

VIII. Procedure for implementing NFSA.—

(i) The eligible households will be given the entitled quantity of food grains at the notified rates from the date to be notified by the Government. Allocation of food grains to the shops will be made accordingly and shop owners will be informed appropriately.

(ii) The Ration cards of eligible households, so determined will be printed or Smart Card will be issued afresh in a phased manner. Till the fresh card is issued the existing card will be stamped and endorsed as eligible card under NFSA, 2013 for the appropriate category i.e. AAY or other priority household and these cardholders will keep getting the entitled food grains on existing Ration Card.

(iii) Eldest female member in the household will be made Head of household as prescribed in the NFSA, 2013 and the new card will be titled as “Goa Food Security Card”.

(iv) Photograph & other data of Head of household & other members of the household will be taken and/or imported from UID or EPIC data base. Copies of Aadhaar Card of all the family members wherever available will also be obtained and fed into the data base. An undertaking will also be taken from the head of the household at the time of issue of new Ration Card that the household does’nt fall in any of the exclusion criteria.

(v) The new Ration Card data base will contain Aadhaar numbers (wherever available) and EPIC (Electoral Photo Identity Card) numbers (mandatory) of all the major family members and this will be used as a tool to avoid duplication. Non submission of copy of EPIC within the time prescribed by the department or knowingly submitting of wrong information in the form or undertaking shall lead to removal of the family from the list of AAY/Priority Category till such time requirement is fulfilled.

IX. Help desks.— Help desks will be established in the office of each Taluka Office to guide the applicants and help them in filling up the application forms. The help desk will also do the preliminary scrutiny of the application forms and attached documents to facilitate submission of complete application along with the prescribed documents. This will expedite the sanction process and avoid inconvenience to the applicants.

X. Publicity and awareness.— People may also be contacted through NGOs and Public representatives and through various other communication means.

Vulnerable households in existing survey data like socio economic and caste census, survey of homeless people in the State will also be contacted and encouraged to avail benefit. Wide publicity will be given to these guidelines.

Panaji, 18th August, 2014.
constituted by the Government of Goa under these guidelines.

4.2 ‘Non Governmental Organisation’ A Non Governmental Organization (NGO) means any non-profit, voluntary group which is organized on a local, national or international level. Task-oriented and driven by people with a common interest, NGOs perform a variety of service and humanitarian functions, bring citizen concerns to Governments, advocate and monitor policies and encourage political participation through provision of information in the field of Women and Child Welfare.

4.3 ‘Accreditation’ means recognition of Non Governmental Organisations by the Government of Goa who are working in the field of Women and Child Welfare for purpose of facilitating access to work with the government run institutions and also to collaborate and work voluntarily with various other state government departments, corporations, local bodies etc. who require or seek NGOs assistance in implementation of any welfare schemes, projects or statutory day to day functions.

5. The Goa Non Governmental Organisations Accreditation Committee.— 5.1 The Government of Goa shall constitute a Committee called the Goa Non Governmental Organisations Accreditation Committee (hereinafter referred to as the GNGOAC) to discharge the functions laid down under these guidelines.

5.2 The GNGOAC shall consist of Secretary (WCD) as its Chairperson, Representative of Goa State Commission for Women and Goa State Commission for Protection of Children’s Rights shall be its members and additional 3 other members representing eminent persons in the field of social work as may be appointed by the Government Director, Department of Women and Child Development shall be its ex officio Member Secretary.

5.3 The GNGOAC once constituted shall have its tenure for a period of two years from the date of its first meeting.

5.4 The GNGOAC shall meet generally once in a quarter or more frequently, as considered necessary by its Chairperson.

5.5 The decisions of the GNGOAC shall be taken on the basis of majority of the members present and voting.

6. General Terms of Accreditation.— 6.1 Accreditation will be given in accordance with these guidelines to Non Governmental Organizations working primarily in the field of Women and Child Welfare within the State of Goa. The Accreditations will be granted to Non Governmental Organizations as per eligibility conditions laid down in these guidelines.

6.2 Accreditation shall be granted only to those Non Governmental Organisations who have their permanent office set up within the State of Goa.

6.3 Accreditation shall not confer any official or special status on any Non Governmental Organisation or its representatives, but it shall only recognize their identity as an accredited NGO.

6.4 Accreditation of NGOs who have been continuously working in the field of Women and Child Welfare for a minimum period of five years prior to the filing of the application will only be considered. The applications need to be supported with documentary proof of work for five years.

6.5 The NGO seeking accreditation should be a registered legal entity within India as a Society, a Trust or a Non Profit Company under section 25 of The Companies Act other than an individual proprietorship organisation.

6.6 Organisations promoted by a single business house to conduct CSR activities etc. shall not be eligible for accreditation.

6.7 The organizations owned and/or run/managed by individuals having adverse antecedents shall not be eligible. In case any of the managing committee member of the NGO who has been granted accreditation is found involved in any unlawful activities and is charged/convicted by any court of law for an offence involving punishment upon conviction exceeding 3 years or more jail term and in such case if such charged/convicted person still continues to be the member of the managing committee then the accreditation given to such NGO is liable to be suspended or withdrawn till such person is the member of the managing committee of the accredited NGO.

6.8 Accreditation shall be subjected to any conditions that may be laid down by the GNGOAC while granting the accreditation which may be incorporated in the Certificate of accreditation and the accreditation may be withdrawn as soon as the conditions on which it was given cease to exist. Accreditation is also liable to be withdrawn/suspended if it is found to have been misused by the NGO/Social Worker.

6.9 If an applicant is found to have supplied false/fraudulent/forged information/documents to obtain the accreditation for the NGO, the same shall be withdrawn and applicant NGO shall be debarred from accreditation upto a maximum of five years but not less than two years, as decided by GNGOAC.

6.10 The GNGOAC may for any reasons not covered by these guidelines also reject, withdraw or cancel the accreditation of an NGO if according to GNGOAC it is necessary to do so in the public interest.

6.11 The State Government may also for sufficient reasons of public interest direct the Director, Women & Child Development to withdraw the accreditation granted to any NGO and such directions shall be binding on the Director and GNGOAC, who shall after giving an opportunity of hearing and for reasons to be recorded in writing withdraw any accreditation given to an NGO.

6.12 The GNGOAC reserves to itself the right to recommend or reject grant of an accreditation without assigning any reasons.

7. Procedure for accreditation.— 7.1 The application for accreditation shall be filed with the Director of Women and Child Development in prescribed form annexed to these guidelines along with the supporting documents.

7.2 The Director, Women and Child Development can call for any information and documents considered necessary for the purpose of ensuring credibility and genuineness of cases of accreditation, at the time of accreditation or at its renewal or at any other time if so required. And non compliance of this requirement by applicant NGO/Social Worker can be a ground for rejection or withdrawal of the accreditation.

7.3 The applications received for accreditation shall be scrutinised by the Director of Women and Child Development who may also conduct local inquiry or call for intelligence report, required if any through any government machinery so as to place before GNGOAC a detailed report about each case for its decision.

7.4 The applications approved by GNGOAC shall be issued Certificate of Accreditation in prescribed format annexed to these guidelines by the Director, Women and Child Development. The accreditation granted shall be valid for a period of three years and subject to further renewal by GNGOAC.

7.5 In case of any clarifications in interpreting provisions of these guidelines and on issues not covered by these guidelines but requiring decision the matter be placed by the Director (WCD) before the GNGOAC and the decision of the Committee in the matter shall be final and binding.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

Vikas S. N. Gaunekar, Director & ex officio Jt. Secretary (W&CD).
